7. Occupation(s) for the past ten years. Please include the name of your employer(s) and the description of your duties.

I have been an attorney specializing in agricultural law. I have been with the firm Gunderson, Palmer, Nelson & Ashmore for nearly 13 years and a partner there the past 8 years.

8. Background and experience in the area of appointment.

I have been active in the Rapid City Community for 3 years acting as President of the Library Foundation and Black Hills Area Council (Boy Scouts) as well as a board member of BHSURC Community Advisory Board which works to provide educational opportunity to our service men & women at Ellsworth. I have also been a member of SDEOA for the past several years.

9. Please state your interest in this appointment. For example, what would you like to see accomplished?

I want to continue to build on the past successes which have culminated in being awarded the B-21 Bomber. We still have much to accomplish in readying the base for the new service men & women, including providing housing opportunities and quality jobs for spouses. I look forward to continuing to work toward these goals.
